7. The committee shall have the following powers:

a) Control over the finances of the SSS;

b) Control over the activities of the SSS, and the use of the name 'Science Students' Society' for related events.

8. The committee is at all times bound by the decisions of a club general meeting. Any committee decision may be overturned by a general meeting.

9. There shall be one Annual General Meeting every calendar year, which shall be held during the first academic semester. At this meeting:

a) Written reports shall be presented by the President, the Treasurer and the Education Officer, and any other persons as requested by the President;

b) Ratification of the SSS constitution;

c) A full financial report will be presented and adopted for the financial period from AGM to AGM;

d) Elections will be held for a new committee to take charge of the club twenty-four (24) hours after the close of the meeting;

e) Other moved motions may be discussed and voted upon, with preference going to motions of which notice was given before the meeting.

f) The club shall submit all the AGM documents to the C&S Administrator within two (2) weeks of the AGM.

10. There shall be such general meetings (GM) as the committee sees fit or as petitioned. The format will be as for the Annual General Meeting except committee elections will not be held unless specifically notified.

11. If thirty (30) members should petition the committee for a GM then such a meeting must be held within fifteen (15) academic days, at a date set by the committee.

12. The quorum shall be:

a) At a General Meeting or Annual General Meeting, a minimum of twenty (20) members who are not committee members and must be University of Melbourne students.

b) At a committee meeting, five (5) committee members, at least three (3) of whom must be members of the executive.

a) The committee shall be required to give at least five (5) academic days' notice of a General Meeting (GM), Annual General Meeting (AGM) or Special General Meeting (SGM). Such notice must be email notification and given to both the Clubs and Societies Administrator and club members.

a) Voting in all meetings shall be democratic, with a simple majority sufficing for the passage of a motion. All tied motions are lost. No proxy voting shall be permitted.

b) Constitutional changes require a simple majority of members voting at a Special General Meeting or an Annual General Meeting and take effect immediately. These constitutional motions must be presented in writing to the committee at least five (5) academic days before the meeting, and notice of these shall be given to the membership. Constitutional changes shall be approved by the UMSU Clubs and Societies Office Bearer(s) before they are presented to a general meeting.

a) Any committee member absent from two consecutive committee meetings without due cause or previous apology may, at the executive committee's discretion, be deemed to resign from her/his position by a motion of the committee, and a general meeting must be called to elect a successor.

b) It shall be deemed that a committee member should be stood down if a petition is presented bearing the names of at least thirty (30) members.

16. If it is deemed that a committee member should be stood down under 15 (b), impeachment proceedings will take place against the nominated committee member. At the next General Meeting or Annual General Meeting, a motion shall be put to impeach the committee member. At least five (5) academic days' notice must be given in writing to the membership and to the member concerned. If this motion is passed by a two-thirds majority, that committee position will become vacant and a new election held immediately. The committee member to be impeached will be given at least five (5) minutes to speak before the vote is taken.

17. If deemed by a motion of the committee, or a petition bearing the names of at least fifteen members, any member of the club can be expelled. The procedure is the same as for impeachment except that the result is the voiding of the person's membership. No member may be expelled on the grounds of race, sex, gender, religion, political, moral or sexual views.

18. A motion to wind up the club must be written, and notice of the motion is to be given in the agenda for the general meeting at which the winding up motion is to be decided. A winding up motion must be carried by an absolute majority.

19. In the event that the club is wound up, or ceases to be affiliated to UMSU the control of assets which have been 50% or more funded by UMSU Clubs & Societies Committee grants and which are less than three (3) years old will be revert to UMSU and be held in trust by UMSU Clubs & Societies Committee until such time that a club with the same aims is affiliated or a period of 18 months lapses.

20. In the event that the club has not been able to organise a quorate meeting within the 12-month period, the UMSU Clubs & Societies Committee may wind up the club by passing a motion to do so under the rules of UMSU. Any member of the club who wished to oppose the winding up of the club should make submissions to the committee. The decision of the committee is final subject only to appeal under UMSU rules.

21. For all purposes herein, an academic day will be considered as a day in the academic calendar of the University of Melbourne.

22. The profits (if any) or other income and property of the club must be applied solely towards the promotion of the aims of the club as set out in this Constitution and no portion of it may be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, to any member of the club whether by way of dividend, bonus or other profits. This does not prevent any payment in good faith by the club for the payment or reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a member of the club on behalf of the club.

23. If the club is wound up, any money remaining after the payment of all debts, liabilities and expenses must not be paid or distributed to the members but must be transferred to the C&S Committee of UMSU.
